Capt. Harold J. Maynard, 30-year-old native of Indiana, Pa., has taken over the reins of Hondo Air Base adjutant from Chief Warrant Officer Hose H. Lovelace.

Capt. Maynard took over his new duties Tuesday, May 17. Mr. Lovelace's last day of duty was Wednesday, May 18. The new adjutant transferred here from Ellington AFB, Houston.

WATER FROM 1,804 feet spilled out of city Water Well No. 3 Saturday night, May 14 and rushed into a waiting sewer. The well made 1,275 gallons per minute on a test pump, but probably will go as far as 1,500 gallons per minute, Homer Wilson said.

City Well Pumps 1,320 gpm

City Water Well No. 3 struck water at 1,804 feet Saturday evening, May 14.

The first water-bearing strata was found at 484 feet after the top of the Edward's limestone had been reached and casing set at 1,320 feet, Homer Wilson, city manager of waterworks and sewers, said.

"It will still be another three weeks before we get a pump set in for city use," Wilson said Thursday morning, May 19.

On a test run with a temporary pump the well pumped 1,275 gallons per minute and perhaps could be made to produce as much as 1,800 to 2,000 gallons per minute if needed. However, for Hondo needs Wilson figures to pump 1,350 gallons per minute.

Although Hondo is not short of water Mayor O. A. Fly said the well was drilled as a precaution against such an emergency.

"It's been drilled so we wouldn't have to go through water rationing," he said.

Class 7-A Quits Growing

Students in Class 7-A — the one that gets a height check each month — have slowed down. In her report for April taken May 4, Mrs. Ethel Burch, 7-A teacher, reports only one student out of 29, Cassille Joiner, had gained a full inch in the last 30 days, and none had grown three-fourths of an inch in April. Sixteen kept the height registered in April.

Four had grown a half-inch. They are Pedro Garza, Charlene Fields, Marianne Muennink and Betty Parsons. Eight more grew a quarter inch — Tommy Santos, Tommy Carter, Judy Leinweber, Kenneth Heyen, Gienetta Saathoff, Larry Schweers, Clark Wurzbach and Joe Robert Torres.

The 16 who showed no progress are Elizabeth Bali, Joe Benites, Steven Bernal, Wesley Breiten, Nancy Burch, Francis Cuellar, Arthur Dominguez, Margaret Garza, Charles Hitzfelder, Sidney Mercer, Janice Muennink, Mary Rose Quintanilla, Olga Rueda, Clayton Saathoff, Katherine M. a r i e Vincent and Ramiro Ybarra.

Rain For '55 Even With Whole Of '54

May, firmly established as the month of rain this year, added 1.39 inches of moisture on the official rain gauge here this week.

Night rains measured .24 of an inch May 15 and 1.32 inches May 17.

Already May has exceeded half of what Hondo received in the entire 1954 year. With one more rain of more than a trace the amount for 1954 will have been surpassed.

Thus far, in '55 7.18 inches has fallen in May. For the year it's 11.89 inches, only .3 less than for the entire year of 1954 or 11.92 inches.

The official weather gauge reading was smaller than at other points. Jack Fusselman reported 1.80 inches and at the E. W. Brucks' 1.70 inches was measured.

Hugo Bourquin reported an inch fell in Castroville and three inches at D'Hanis.

The deluge fell early Wednesday morning.

Castro To Vaccinate Dogs Monday

CASTROVILLE — "Monday, May 23 will be vaccination day for the dog population of Castroville."

In an attempt to encourage all dog owners to have their pet vaccinated, as a protection to both human and animal, a licensed veterinarian will be at the rear of the Castroville city office Monday, May 23 from 1 until 4 p. m. to vaccinate all dogs brought there.

There will be a minimum charge of $2 for each animal. This will include vaccination against rabies, licensing and registration.

Notices in both English and Spanish are being mailed to all known dog owners to stress the importance of availing themselves of this service. The dog population of Castroville is estimated at well over a hundred animals.

One rabid animal could turn them all into a frothing pack of mad fury, said city secretary Charlotte Lafferty. She continued, "The City Council is hopeful this drive for vaccination will go a long way toward eliminating the danger of rabies in Castroville."

With Spinning Rig, Too

New HAB Chaplain Loves To Fish

By Fred McGahey

Fishing is a first love of Chaplain William T. Kendrick.

One of the first questions the 32-year-old, freckle-faced Baptist from Tennessee asked the Anvil Herald after his arrival was: "Where's there a good place to fish?"

The new Hondo Air Base chaplain evidently uses a spinning rig with as much authority as he puts into his sermons, such are his praises of this far-casting device for hooking fish.

To the uninitiated a spinning rig isn't usually in the closet of the fisherman, but could be in the equipment of an angler, or ace fisherman.

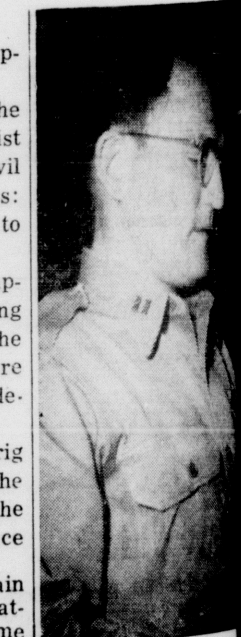

The genial redhead, a captain in rank, hails from historic Chattanooga, Tenn. of Civil War fame but his manner belies anything but a Southern gentleman.

As an education start he finished at Central High School in Chattanooga before going to Carson-Newman College in '44 at Jefferson City, Tenn. He also attended Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., class of '47. Next was a tour of duty as pastor of the Bean Station Baptist Church in Bean Station, Tenn.

Chaplain Kendrick was also pastor of the Bramlette Baptist Church in Bramlette, Tenn., pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church in Americus, Ga. and a man of the cloth in the First Baptist Church at Rochelle, Ga.

The new HAB chaplain entered service with the Air Force in January, 1951. He attended the chaplain's school at Carlisle Barracks, Pa., then was stationed at Vance AFB at Enid, Okla. in March, 1951. The Tennesseean got his first service look at foreign shores when he was assigned to historic Hickham Field, Hawaii, in April 1952. This was the field the Japanese bombed at Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941, but by the time the young chaplain was assigned there peaceful flowers were mute reminders that the scar of war had been removed.

the peacetime Pearl Harbor well. He was stationed there three years until March when the transfer to Base became official.

Chaplain Kendrick and his wife Ann, and children Beebe, 6½, Patty, 3½, and three months, three days later, moved to Hondo.

Chaplain Kendrick's first assignment was as a clerk in the bars came on a folks associate with him he at first thought it was a Fool joke. The joke was to be real.

Other than his peacetime fishing and hunting, he is a carpenter. Still, he never lets pleasure with business. He said Field had a beautiful lake but that he never would play the last nine minutes service there. Why? "Too busy," he said.

Past Masters Honored At Masonic Meet

By Fletcher Davis
Hondo City Lodge No. 756, A. F. & A. M., the town's long-established and only Masonic Lodge, set a precedent at a called meeting Tuesday night, May 17.

The worshipful master, Nick G. Riff, in recognition of the past masters of the lodge and appreciation of their past services, designated the occasion as Past Masters' Night and had Secretary Samuel D. Moos extend a personal invitation to all past masters to attend.

From this attendance he chose P. M. William G. Muennink to preside as W. M. pro tem and to select and direct a degree team from the group of past masters present to confer the master's degree on a waiting candidate, James Riff.

Following the degree work, past master W. N. Saathoff, by invitation, delivered a discourse on the moral and ethical principles of free masonry. He was followed briefly by several other P. M.'s, and visitors from other lodges.

From the large attendance that filled the spacious lodge-room, a standing count disclosed 25 past masters present.

Following the closing of the lodge meeting, stewards served ice cream and cake in the anti-room. Large as was the crowd and "big" as the appetites were the massive cake was prepared for the occasion on order by Brother E. D. Gaither of the Texas Aviation Industries mess service.

Rains Bring Dead Fish To Yancey

YANCEY — Seeing so many buzzards flying around Sunday morning, Wilbur Wilson investigated.

He expected to find some of the cattle dead. The cause, however was dead fish all over the banks of his mother's (Mrs. E. E. Wilson's) tank. The banks of the lake and down the creek for at least a half mile were covered with big, dead fish, extending six feet or more from the water.

Thinking perhaps the water was poisoned and would kill the cattle, Wilbur at once called the rest of the family. The group then called a Mr. Harper in Devine, who is an authority on fish.

Harper assured the people the water would not harm the stock, that it was not poison. His explanation is that certain weeds growing on creeks in dry weather, such as found here will form a gas when washed down the creek, after heavy rains and will kill fish, but will not harm stock.

Harper also said the gas that formed killed the fish as they came to the top. The wind, he said, blew the fish to the banks while the creek was still running.

As the water went down, some of the fish were left high on the banks.

Owls Bow Out, 6-5 Here 13th

Plenty of walks but not enough runs spelled the end of the 27-A baseball championship trail for the Hondo Owls and Black Cat Day as well Friday the 13th when they went under to the Edgewood Red Raiders, 6-5, at Barry Field.

A pair of ineffective singles was all the Owls could muster offensively. Glenn Schweers had a hit in the second, and scored the Owls' first run, and Alvin Hartman got another in the same frame to bring in the second run.

The blow that broke the Owls' back was Carl Wanke's double in the sixth. Lefty Richard Schulte appeared safely out of trouble after he got the first two batters in the inning to ground out and fly out. But he walked Rightfielder Valdez and Wanke's extra base hit, the only one of the contest, brought in the sixth and winning run.

Hondo never came close to getting the tying run. In their half of the sixth three went down on strikes and in the seventh the dismal end came with a strikeout, a walk, a strikeout and a groundout.

However, the Owls did tie once. They never led because Edgewood got off to the three-run lead in the first frame. Still, the Owls made two in the second to make it 3-2 Edgewood. However, Edgewood scored again in the third to stay ahead of another Owl tally, 4-3. Edgewood made another score in the fifth before the Owls tied it up with two scores made without the aid of bat meeting ball.

A sloppy Raider defense allowed the runs. Bill Neuman opened by whiffing but the Schweers brigade of Glenn and W. J. both drew walks. In between strikeouts by Jerry Muennink and Alvin Hartman two runs scored.

Lefty Ernest Perez, the Edgewood hurler, allowed 11 walks but also struck out 11. Schulte

Holditch Goes To Breckenridge

Murry Holditch, high school assistant coach for two years, won't be around next September when the Owls start football practice.

Instead, the 30-year-old 225-pounder, will be drilling the Breckenridge Buckaroos as line coach in AA competition. He'll be under Head Coach Emory Bellard, who brings to Breckenridge a great record as mentor of the Ingleside Mustangs of Class B fame.

Both coaches will be seeing a team that was once AAA caliber, but has so scared the opposition that no one wanted to play the Bucks. Thus, they moved down a notch into AA status. However, a lower league doesn't keep Breckenridge from playing Abilene and other 4-A teams prior to district tilts.

The Bucks have copped the AAA title three out of the last four years.

Holditch, who also coached at Pearsall before coming here in 1954, graduated from Texas A&M College in 1951. Prior to that he put in three and a half years as a flight engineer in the Air Force. His tour of duty took him to England and the South Pacific.

A native of Blooming Grove near Corsicana, Holditch married Theresa Teiner of Pearsall in 1954. They have one child, passed nine batters and struck out five.

Both Owl miscues were made by Johnny Morin.

In their quest for the bi-district crown against the Del Rio nine, Edgewood was one down at press time. The Wildcats, 28-A titlists, took the opening game of a best-of-three series in their lair, 10-3, Monday, May 16. The second game was to be played at 8 p. m. Thursday in Del Rio.

Hondo ended its league season with a 6-3-1 mark to 9-1 for the Raiders.

The Owls have turned in their uniforms.

Central 9, Comets 8 In Semifinals

By Gerald Kempf

CASTROVILLE — The St. Louis Comets advanced to the semifinals in the Catholic state tournament in Houston last weekend, only to be beaten out of a final berth by the Central Catholic Buttons of San Antonio, 9-8.

Comets 11—Jesuits High 5
After drawing a bye in the first round of play the Comets fought their way to the semifinals by downing Jesuit High of Dallas, 11-5. Although somewhat wild Harold Keller was brilliant on the mound. He struck out 14 and walked 10 and gave up only two singles, both in the first frame when Jesuit scored four of its runs.

Keller was also the big gun at the plate, smashing out four singles in five trips to drive in four runs.

Central 9—St. Louis 8
The Comets lost a heartbreaker to the Central Catholic Buttons the following day, in a game that was protested in the fourth inning by the Comets. After the protest was ironed out, and night was about to fall, Central emerged the victors 9-8 on the strength of an eight-inning home-run by Pitcher Rothman.

Rothman worked the whole extra-inning game, allowing but seven hits. He fanned 10 Comets and walked four. Maurice Etter and Harold Keller performed the mound duties for St. Louis. The loss was charged to Etter.

St. Mary's 4—St. Louis 3
The Comets traveled to Fredericksburg May 5 and lost their first game in Academic League competition, 4-3, in 13 innings. The reversal cost St. Louis a tie for first place.

Harold Keller went all the way in the 13-inning contest, gave up but six hits and fanned 15. However, 13 walks and five Comet errors spelled defeat.

Kaiser went all the way for St. Mary's, giving up seven hits, fanning 12 and walking five. His mates gave him perfect support. St. Louis 210 000 000 000 0-3
St. Mary's 000 011 100 000 1-4
Batteries: Keller and Groff; Kaiser and Staudt.

St. Louis 11—St. Anthony's 8
The St. Louis Comets bounced back into the win column in A. L. by coming from behind to defeat St. Anthony's 11-8.

The Comets trailed, 4-1, going into the sixth inning, but then broke loose with 10 big runs. The outburst was featured by a grand slam homerun by Royce Groff and a two-run triple by Justin Jungman.

Cosmos led St. Anthony's attack by driving in three runs on a triple and sacrifice.

Jungman started for the Comets and was relieved by Maurice Etter in the fourth. Etter took credit for the victory. Ferguson started for the Yellow Jackets and gave way to Wick in the sixth. The latter was charged with the loss.

This game put the Comets into

Seco Philosopher Sez

His Farm Would Confuse Russians

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has an interesting idea this week, but he won't get anywhere with it. He never does.

Dear editor:

As I understand it, in the interest of international harmony, a group of Russian editors and students are coming over to the United States to study us farmers sometime this spring or summer, and I have been giving the matter some serious thought.

The reasons the Russians want to study us is that in Russia, try as hard as they will or as hard as the government can make them, the farmers haven't been able to grow enough food, whereas in this country we have succeeded in growing more than we know what to do with.

Now I don't know what the intentions of the United States are in this matter, I suppose they are entirely above-board, just a friendly gesture to let the Russians see how a free country farms, but if anybody is interested in confusing them, I know how it can be done.

Just let em visit my Johnson grass farm out here.

If they can look at my farmin operations thoroughly and then figure out how America has produced more food than it knows what to do with, they've got bigger electronic brains than we have.

And if we want to use a few cold war tactics in this matter, give em to understand my farm is a typical one, and after they spend a day taking notes on my methods and go back home and spread the word, it'll set Russian agriculture back two generations.

However, I don't look for anything to come of this, as I don't believe the Russians would ever understand my farmin methods. In the first place, they may not even have bailing wire in Russia, and without bailing wire the foundations would fall out from under my system. You take all the bailing wire off my farm and two-thirds of the fences would fall down, all the gates would swing open, the tail gate would fall off my trailer, my tractor would scatter parts from the backdoor to the north end of the farm, and I'm not even sure my pants would stay up.

If though the visitors insist on coming by my place, I'll be glad to show em around, and will give each one a small handful of Johnson grass seed. If we can get it back to Russia and dropped in half a dozen places, in five years we'll have em begging for mercy.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

EXTENDS THANKS TO THE AUTHOR,
MRS. IDA BRUCKS BISCHOFF,
FOR THE FOLLOWING HISTORICAL DATA

MRS. BISCHOFF WRITES:

Mr. Fletcher Davis
Hondo, Texas

Dear sir:

Having noticed in the Anvil Herald where Mrs. Vance wishes information on several things, and as you asked for help, I thought maybe I could enlighten you a little bit on some. For instance: There were relics or a memorial or something supposed to have been given to Castro, which was located on the little hill, half way from the gate to the Tragger dance hall. We often stopped and looked at it. So did very many others.

Going in, it was on the right side, close to the road.

I cannot say anything about windows but about the Lutheran Church I went to that many a time. I think in 1910 they built the new one close to the road. (My brother, W. E. Brucks, built it). Then later they tore the old church down and built the parish hall exactly on the same place where the stone church had stood.

Now, about the church on Bandera Road. That was built later than the Quihi stone structure for those people who did not like to go as far as Quihi. They always had the same preacher.

Now about saying mass in Quihi. For a long time the priest of Castroville came by and held mass in Quihi and also at D'Hanis. He would give notice to Mrs. Jacob Riff that he would say mass at her house. So mother carried her babies one mile to Riff's house whenever she had one to be christened. Thirteen children, 12 of them must be recorded in the Castroville christening book, and one was christened in D'Hanis.

There are some early settlers buried on the Fritz Boehle land, close to the baseball ground just where the road to the Gun Club turns off the Quihi cemetery road on the left side in the Boehle's pasture.

My mother's father was buried there among others. My father's father was here two years, then he and a Mr. Leinweber died of yellow fever and are both buried at Rio Medio one-half the way to SA on the old road.

P. S.: The name Boinkhoff is not right. It's Brinkhoff. Hoping this is a little help. I am Ida Bischoff, Houston, Texas, 2601 Hardwood Lane.

We greatly appreciate the foregoing letter, as we know every one else will who is interested in the history of our county and those who made that history.

In reference to the supposed memorial to Castro, as mentioned in the above and judging from Mrs. Bischoff's description and location, what she refers to must have been the rugged, unmarked mausoleum which Dr. J. T. FitzSimon had erected there following the death of the late Judge James Paul. The property had belonged to a Doctor Hoffman, a pioneer physician of Castroville. He, his wife and a daughter had their home nearby. Judge Paul married the daughter. Later, all three died and were buried side-by-side only a few steps from the front door of what had been their home. The judge lived on there for many years, alone with his memories and keeping flowers growing on their graves until the last. Dying, his will provided that he be buried beside them and the graves cared for. Thinking to preserve them, Dr. FitzSimon, as executor of the will, had Mr. Halbardier, a local stonemason, erect the mausoleum over the four graves. In a few years, the property passed into new ownership. A playground was made of the spot. Every vestige of the old house and the massive rockpile was removed and every sign of the graves obliterated so completely that when this columnist last visited the spot not an identifying mark of grave or house place could be located.

FD

About the little New Fountain Lutheran Church, services were held there by the Quihi minister, the Rev. Czerkus, as late as 1898, and possibly as late as the tenure of the late Revs. Hasskari and Weber. But a few years ago the building was sold to a neighboring farmer who moved it to his farm and converted it into a barn. Near the church site there remains a community cemetery. Whether still tended or abandoned we know not.

CASTROVILLE — A severe hail storm struck here at 11 o'clock p. m. Thursday and at Sturm Hill, Rio Medina, from where it cut a swath about two miles in width along the Rio Medina-Castroville road. About one half mile north of town it changed its course and drove on southwest, striking the town with terrific force leveling to the ground the oats and corn crop which had looked so promising.

While Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Howard, of Black Creek were at church at 11:45 Sunday morning, lightning struck the telephone line near Howard's home and every post between Howard and Jungmans. Mr. Howard's telephone was burned out and his porcelain bath tub was cracked. The heavy rain falling kept the house from burning. Pieces of the scattered post near his dwelling flew into the house through windows and doors.

Hottest news in Hardtops is the 4-Door Riviera

Why take anything less than the sensation of the year?

WHEN you learn what's been done in the automobile pictured here, you can easily see why this beauty is winning rave notices coast to coast.

Buick engineers took the hardtop body design that has been growing tremendously in popularity over the past six years—and gave it four doors instead of two.

Simple? Sure—to all outward appearances.

But it took a brand-new kind of body with wholly new structural principles to do it—to bring this long-awaited new kind of automobile to the public in volume numbers and at popular prices.

For this is a true hardtop—with the sleek and racy look of a Convertible, because there are no center posts in the window areas on either side.

And now it has front doors for the front-seat passengers—and rear doors for the rear-seat passengers—plus room increased to the size of a full Sedan.

(It took some special kind of engineering magic, you can be sure, to hinge all four doors at their forward edges for greater safety, and more ease of entering and exiting.)

So it looks like Buick has scooped the industry again—and come up with the hottest news in hardtops since Buick originated the first two-door hardtop six years ago.

HOTTEST NEWS IN AUTOMATIC DRIVES IS VARIABLE PITCH DYNAFLOW

It's the world's first transmission with the switch-pitch principle of the modern airplane's variable pitch propeller. You get better gas mileage in cruising. You switch the pitch just by pressing the gas pedal—and get lightning-like response for getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of accelerating power. It's the performance thrill of the year. Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Series at no more extra cost than earlier versions of this wonder drive.

And you can have it now—in the low-price SPECIAL or the supremely-powered CENTURY—and either one at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door.

Drop in on us today—this week, for sure—and see how easily and how quickly one can be yours.

"TELEPHONE IS THE CENTER OF OUR FAMILY CIRCLE"

These are the words of Mrs. Colin Stewart, one of a group of Southwestern Bell customers who recently kept a day-to-day record of telephone calls made and received during one week.

Until she kept this record of calls, Mrs. Stewart says she never really realized how important a part the telephone plays in her family life.

You see, Mrs. Stewart's husband is retired now, and though they spend more time together, she still likes to keep in touch with all of her family—a daughter, son-in-law and four grandchildren.

Above are just a few of the telephone calls Mrs. Stewart listed during one day. They show why she says that the telephone is the center of her family circle.

The telephone in your home is only the beginning of the greater telephone convenience you may enjoy. For information on how you can have modern, complete home telephone service, please call the telephone business office.

Debra Ann Cheney, I, Follies Queen

D'HANIS — Debra Ann Cheney, year old daughter of M&M Wayne Cheney, was crowned queen of the "Funnybone Follies" Saturday night in the D'Hanis auditorium.

Debra Ann won a two-weeks' popularity contest sponsored by the D'Hanis Volunteer Fire Dept.

Johnny Zinsmeyer, little son of M&M Jack Zinsmeyer, was declared king in the same coronation ceremony which climaxed the final presentation of the Follies.

The princess and duchesses respectively were Karen Burrell, Bernadette Zerr and Molly Ann Finger. The prince and dukes were Norman Lutz, Anthony Koch and Tommy Attaway.

Nearly a hundred persons appeared in the show, which offered a variety of entertainment including a patriotic act, a toyland skit, Stars on Parade, and a womanless wedding. Pianist for the songs and dances was Mrs. J. M. Slavik.

Large crowds were present for both the Friday and Saturday performances, and the results were a decided financial success.

The purpose of the drive was to procure funds for the purchase of needed firefighting equipment, especially a hose and portable extinguishers that have become necessary supplements to the new water mains installed in D'Hanis last fall.

The D'Hanis Volunteer Fire Dept., organized in November, 1947, with 23 charter members, answered its first fire alarm the evening of Feb. 7, 1949, at the Red and White Store. Its last call to date was the thirty-third on April 16 at the home of Mrs. Henry Poerner.

Headquarters for the department is the fire house situated on the corner of Lindsay St. and Eagle Pass Ave. Constructed of D'Hanis tile on a lot donated by the late Louis Carle, Sr., the 20x50 foot building houses the fire truck and other equipment. A room for meetings is a part of the building. Material and most of the labor were also donated in the construction. A siren whistle operates through the telephone exchange.

Fire Chief Walter Burrell, who has served in that capacity since the department was first organized, considers the fire started by lightning in the Holy Cross Church steeple May 31, 1950 perhaps the greatest hazard he has had to direct thus far.

Burrell, who has had special training and serves as a fireman at Kelly Field, has a complete record of the department's activities. John Zinsmeyer serves as president and A. J. Finger is secretary-treasurer.

She is a family life education specialist. Her program centered around, "Helping Adults Live Happier, More Comfortable, More Productive and Less Troubl- ed Lives."

Mrs. Johnson stressed that mental health has to do with the way that each person harmonizes his desires, ambitions, abilities, ideals, feelings, and conscience in order to meet the demand of life as it is faced. She also stated that it reflects in the overall way people get along—in their families, at school, on the job, at play, with their associates, in their communities.

People with good mental health feel comfortable about them- selves. They feel right about other people and are able to meet the demands of life. In other words, knowing ourselves helps us to live better with others.

Fresh pineapple deserves a very important place in planning the family menu. A cupful gives about a third of the daily al- lowance of Vitamin C needed per day. Fruit experts tell us that a ripe pineapple in good condition has a fresh, clean appearance with distinctive dark orange- yellow color and a delicately frag- rant odor.

It takes five years to train a triple rated pilot of an Air Force B-47, and it costs $608,000 to give one man the necessary training and experience.

Gardeners Proud Of Blue Memorial

By Katherine Vincent

Hondo Garden Club members are proud and justly so of their new Blue Star Memorial Marker.

The marker is the first on Hwy. 90 in District VII. It has been erected a block west of Ave. M. Around the large memorial landscaping has recently been completed.

The Blue Star Memorial Highway is a living tribute to this nation's Armed Forces—to the men and women who have, are, or will serve that we might continue to live in freedom and peace in "America the Beautiful." It was named for the blue star of the service flag.

Mrs. A. A. Yates of San Antonio, District VII chairman, was instrumental in Hondo's receiving the marker. Primarily the emblem was placed here to emphasize the many men who have and will receive training at Hondo Air Base.

Rudolph Riefkogel, one of the senior landscape advisers for the State of Texas, assisted the local highway committee with landscaping the parks. Bordering either side of the walk leading to the marker, the pinky, a popular floribunda rose, has been used. Cotoneasters have been planted in the background.

Much credit for the beauty of the parks along the highway and for the installation of the marker is due the Texas Hwy. Dept. and Charles Korbell, maintenance foreman, here in Hondo. Through his supervision the parks were cleaned, graded and sodded. The center block on the highway in front of the depot was planted with its 90 shrubs in 1952, in the presidency of Mrs. F. D. Garrison.

In 1953-54 under the leadership of Mrs. Bill Berger, the two blocks adjoining the center block were planted. Sinesia and crepe myrtle alone are used on these blocks.

With Mrs. Sam Lanham at the helm now, another block has been planted. Replanting and improving have been done where necessary in the other blocks. The block between Ave. J and I has been replanted by the Future Homemakers girls. The civic-minded FHAers planted their block and are paying for its maintenance as one of their club projects. Mrs. Robert Faselers works with the FHA girls.

Assisting in this project as in all other civic projects for the betterment of our city are the chamber of commerce and the city council. Without their support none of this could have been accomplished.

Hondo Garden Club members join with the more than 30,000 members of Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., who have accepted the responsibility to beautify the Blue Star Memorial Highway in order to honor all who have or will serve to help build a civilization fit for free men—and to aid in making our America more beautiful.

The gardeners hope to make of this appropriate and worthwhile project "A Thing of Beauty and a Joy Forever."

Mighty OAKS from Little ACORNS Grow...

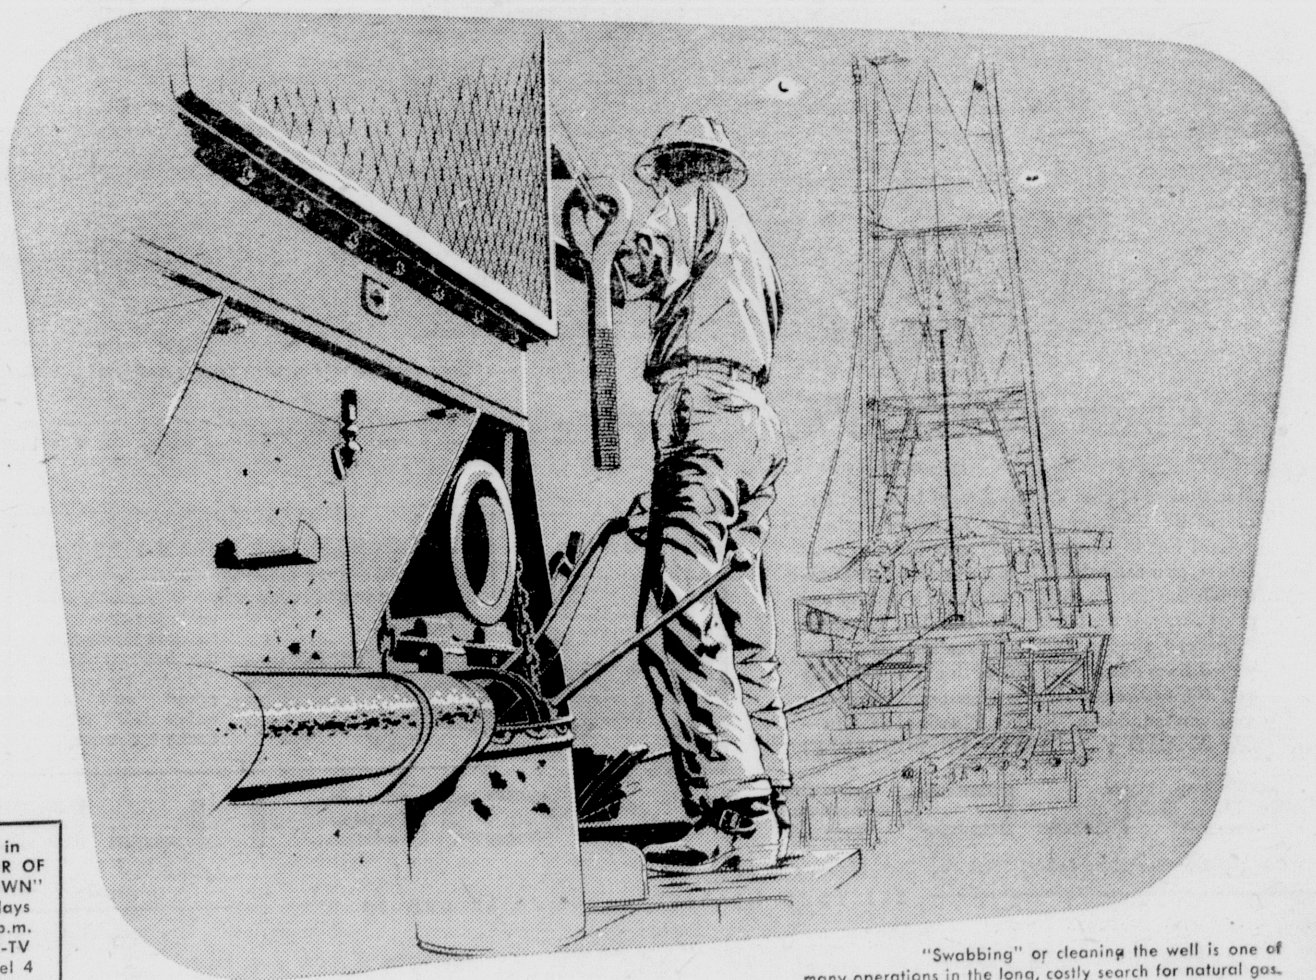

The natural gas business, from a small beginning, has grown to be the nation's sixth largest industry. This rapid development has been made possible by people like you and your neighbors, who have invested many millions of dollars in the companies that make up the industry.

The future growth of the natural gas industry depends on the availability of gas in quantities to meet the demand. And this is the responsibility of thousands of producers, who take enormous financial risks every day in the search for additional supplies of natural gas. We think you will agree that...

...this is a search that must never end

From Wood And Metal

FFA Boys Turn Out Furniture

By Babs Batot

Hondo Future Farmers are way ahead of the current "do-it-yourself" craze.

The craze is turning every new owner into a potential furniture manufacturer.

Their method of creating useful and ornamental articles for the home combines cedarwood scrap metal that result in lamps, gates, barbecue barrels and other handy items.

The reddish cedarwood is picked up in San Antonio and sold to boys at 30 cents a board foot. The pine may be purchased at 20 cents, or salvaged from crates for nothing.

The quality and versatility displayed in the craft work is something pleasing to the eye.

Turning the base of one lad's lamp, you'll see slices of three different-colored and grained woods.

Harry Koch struck out on a bent. He fashioned twin bowls from bowling pins.

With horseshoes being used for anything from playing the game to gunracks, one ingenious FFAer constructed a lamp base from them.

Glenn Schweers' designs lead him to comment, "I've never seen anything like it." Glenn makes the run-of-the-mill lamp bases, but his design is striking because it's simple.

When wrought iron floor lamps, the home furnishings limelight, cost their owners only $1.20 a piece, the shade.

Six coffee tables were constructed from materials totaling $20. A local lumber company donated glass cutting to the boys for the table tops.

Sixteen sharp iron foot scrapers spread widespread popularity.

One of the six iron gates was made by Floyd DeGroot, who sold one-inch waste pipe. The cost? Five dollars.

Five barbecue barrels insured the boys' families for FFA boys.

A large cattle self feeder was built for $60, while a turkey self feeder costing $20 ran over the usual expense account.

Several boys fashioned oval miniature picture frames from scrap lumber. The cost of such projects? One cent.

Hot shots, electrical chargers for working cattle, were fabricated by one youth made a planter from old cultivator wheels.

Students with a minimum of the sharpened farm tools, reduced tool handles, and made repairs on their cars.

A cross section of miscellany includes milking stools, candle holders, cake trays, a smoking stand, and a magazine rack, a flower box and what-not shelves.

Tools used include the electric welder, gas welder and metal saws used in metal work, and a band saw, jig saw, and table saw, wood lathe, wood vises and an electric sander for woodcraft. The drilling press is used in both crafts. All machines are supplied by the agriculture shop.

The only concern in the ag shop is safety. Sawed fingers and splintered eyes are two consequences that can and have happened. Luckily, the occasions have been few.

The strong light given off by the welder can blister the boys' eyes if preventive measures are not taken. John McAnelly, vocational agriculture adviser, has a burn from welding in his undershirt.

Plans for the projects are taken from magazines and books, but a few ambitious boys plan their own. McAnelly thought the FFA-ers could make plenty of items from scrap lumber and pipe laying near their homes.

Senior carpenters, realizing elaborate groovings inviting dust don't go over with mom, employ simple techniques to make their projects more effective.

First-timers on the wood lathe usually go wild with their schemes.

Unlike girls, who despise seeing anyone wearing "their" dress, the male planners tend to imitate one another.

The semi-completed item is varnished immediately after sanding to insure a light clear finish. Otherwise, the air will oxidize the wood and turn it dark.

Because of recent dust in the air, the boys have varnished their projects in a closed room. If possible all projects are finished in the ag shop.

Four classes of 42 freshmen, sophomores and seniors fashioned 84 wood or metal objects. Only three years of vocational agriculture are sponsored so the juniors miss out on the doings.

April 22 was the last day of work for all but the freshmen. They'll continue.

Graffs Get Close Look At Arkansas

The Louis F. Graffs saw plenty of Texas and some Arkansas greenery on a 10-day trip to Paris, Ark. and back.

The Graffs visited Mrs. Graff's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scheile. It was the locals first visit to Arkansas.

The Graffs went by way of Houston, Shreveport, Texarkana and Little Rock. They reported the country pretty but also saw lots of mosquitoes. Coming home they drove through Fort Smith, Ark. and Fort Worth.

The Arkansawyers, the Graffs discovered, had beautiful homes pretty flowers and vegetable gardens. Good crops of wheat and oats were waist high. There was lots of cotton and clover. Most of the people, they said, had dairy farms or hogs, turkeys or chickens. Some have as much as 6- to 8,000 chickens.

Another visit brought the Graffs to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Estes and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caldwell, former Tarpley residents.
